Our Small Group of 12 people used Old Testament Characters as one of its topics to study this past year. Everyone found the characters to be facinating and the study questions stimulated good discussion amongst all of our members. The stories about these characters from the past illustrated important character traits that we can apply to our lives as Christians today.

If you are set to lead a bible-study, aren't quite sure on what your meeting topics will be, and have a genuine appreciation for old testament stories, this book is yours. The questions are already prepared, the discussion topics are already prepared. All you need to do is get yourself ready to learn more about the Bible. I would recommend to anyone.

My neighborhood Bible Study group is using this study guide. We are only at Chapter 3, but finding the outline and questions work very well for us.

My wife uses this book for her youth girls S. S. class she teaches at our church and she says she loves the outline and questions.

Great we are enjoying our studies. Thanks.

Our bible study group has enjoyed this series very ch

Its great we use it in a group. It's short enough for us with families, but if you allow it to be, deep enough when you add in research. I am really enjoying this as a student of the word, and as a parent, able to teach my child about the heroes of the bible.

Everything as promised.
